Excessive limited transactions may require us to change the account to a transaction account that will reduce earnings. Unlimited withdrawals are those that are made in person at any one of our branch offices, at the ATM, or by mail or messenger. Unlimited withdrawals are not included in determining whether or not we are required to transfer your account to a transaction type account. Both limited and unlimited transactions are counted when determining over-the-limit transaction fees for the statement cycle unless otherwise noted above. Health Savings Accounts are excluded from these specific limitations.
